

Beaverton Police Investigate Robbery & Sexual Assault Incident

On November 18th at 6:49 PM the Beaverton police received a call of a robbery and assault that had just taken place in the area of 163rd and SW Estuary Drive. The female victim reported that a male suspect used a ruse of asking for help to gain unforced entry into her apartment.

While inside the apartment the female victim was attacked from behind and physically assaulted. The suspect then attempted to sexually assault the victim before fleeing the apartment with property belonging to the victim.

The suspect was described as a Hispanic male between the ages of 15 to possibly early 20's, although, the victim believed the suspect was most likely in his teens. He was described as approximately 5'6" with a light to medium build, wearing dark pants, a dark hooded sweatshirt with the hood pulled over his head and a baseball cap that had writing on the front.

The victim in was very distraught over this incident and does not wish to be identified. In order to prevent revealing the identity, detectives are not elaborating on the type or extent of the physical injury or any other details regarding the attempted sexual assault. However, the victim's injuries were not life threatening.

Detectives were able to complete a composite drawing and have released it. Please see the attached composite below.

The Beaverton Police Department is reminding the public to be wary of letting strangers into their homes and is also asking for any information that could assist detectives in identifying the suspect. If you have information please call the non-emergency line at 503-629-0111.
